

CATIA - Event

Problem Statement

CATIA is a 3D CAD competition of Pragati 2020 which gives you a platform to unleash your creative as well as technical skills to solve 3D CAD problems. The problems will be based mainly on Mechanical Engineering or Automobile Engineering domains.

Rules

- Teams will consist of two undergraduate students from any branch any year.
- Students must bring their own pencils, pens, paper, rulers, and calculators for any calculation. Students will not be allowed to use cell phones.
- Student teams are to work independently in completing their design.
- Participants have to complete their design in the stipulated time period
- Judges decision is the final decision.

Other Details

- No. of members: 2(max)
- Registration Fees (External Students): Rs. 30/-
- Registration Fees (Internal Students): NIL

Coordinators

Kajal ghosh-8910154848

Agnish ghosh- 9831788929